

2006 Oil and Gas Activity Update for Saskatchewan

Stephen Rymes¹

The oil and gas sector in Saskatchewan experienced another strong year in 2006. Land sale, drilling and production activities in the province continue to be robust. The presentation will provide an update of petroleum industry activity levels in the province and, in particular, the Williston Basin, and will identify some of the major achievements in 2006.

¹Saskatchewan Industry and Resources, Regina, SK

Stephen Rymes graduated from the University of Saskatchewan in 1982 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering. He has worked his entire professional career at Saskatchewan Industry and Resources in a number of different capacities and is currently Director, Engineering Services Branch. The branch has regulatory responsibilities related to the proper management and conservation of crude oil and natural gas resources in Saskatchewan. Stephen is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Saskatchewan. Email: srymes@ir.gov.sk.ca